The above list is issued for the information of Captains of His Majesty's Ships with reference to the provisions of Article 126 of the King's Regulations, under which they are authorised to ascertain whether Merchant Ships flying the Blue Ensign of His Majesty's Fleet are legally entitled to do so.

The detailed Regulations issued by the Board of Trade lay down the following conditions relative to the flying of the Blue Ensign:—

1. If, from any circumstances, the Officer to whom the warrant was issued is not in command of the ship, the Blue Ensign is not to be worn.

2. If the number of persons belonging to the Naval Forces or Naval Reserve Forces specified in the King's Regulations on board is less than 7, then the Blue Ensign is not to be worn unless it can be justified by the endorsements on the Agreement, or by entries in the Official Log, that the reduction in the number is caused by death, sickness, desertion or joining a British Man of War, or by some unavoidable cause.

3. If it should be found that, although the ship is provided with an Admiralty Warrant, the above conditions are not complied with, the Admiralty Warrant should be obtained and transmitted, with a copy to the Admiralty if the Commanding Officer is on the Retired List of the Royal Navy and to the Admiralty General in all other cases.

4. If it is found that the ship is flying the Blue Ensign without an Admiralty Warrant the Blue Ensign should be seized and the case reported to the Admiralty or Registrar General of Shipping and Tonnage as the case may be.
